I

DISAGREE

CLAIRE WINTER'S pride at being a beach nudist for six years is all very well for her (Letters, 26/1).

She does not have the appendages to get sunburned that I have.

It was not through any love of nudity that I sustained an extremely painful sunburn on my appendages.

During the war my ship was sunk by enemy action and I struggled ashore naked on the beach of an uninhabited tropical island.

JOHN LEGGOE,
Duncraig.
